

HR Code of Conduct

Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to communicate respectfully and behave professionally in the workplace.

Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential company and employee information and must not share it without authorization.

Respectful Workplace

Harassment, discrimination, bullying, and threatening behavior are not acceptable in the workplace.

Reporting Concerns

Employees may report workplace concerns to HR or through the company's designated reporting channel.

Document prepared for the AI HR Policy Assistant RAG project.